The Arts Council of Northern Ireland welcomes applications from the widest possible range of individuals, representing all categories under Section 75 of the Northern Ireland Act 1998. We particularly welcome applications by disabled artists and by artists from the generally unionist community as applications from both these demographics are currently under-represented across our programmes aimed at individuals.

Aims of the Artists' International Development Fund (AIDF)

The Artists' International Development Fund (AIDF) is an annual programme jointly funded by the British Council and Arts Council of Northern Ireland and is open to both individual artists and organisations². The programme will support early-stage international development opportunities for individual, freelance and self-employed artists and organisations based in Northern Ireland. It will afford recipients the opportunity to spend time building links with artists, organisations, and/or creative producers in another country. The aim of the programme is to support individual international developmental opportunities for talent and artistic excellence from Northern Ireland and, thereby, enhance Northern Ireland's international artistic development, reputation and standing.

How much funding is available?

Artists and organisations are able to apply for small grants from £1,000 to £7,000.

Are collaborative projects eligible?

Collaborative applications from individual artists working together in cross-discipline or single artform projects/activities are encouraged.

- Only one application form should be used for the complete collaborative project.
- You must provide information on the artistic practice of all artists that are involved in the project (if this is not supplied, your application will be ineligible).
- Collaborative projects must have a lead applicant – that is, the applicant in whose name the application is submitted and who, in the event of an award, will be the individual responsible for managing the grant, and monitoring and reporting on the project and complying with any verification of the award³.
- The maximum Artists International Development Fund award remains the same even if it is a collaborative project.

Is your proposal timeframe suitable?

The Artists International Development Fund will only fund proposals that will take place between 1 November 2026 and 31 October 2027. All eligible expenditure must be incurred within these dates. If this is not the case for your proposal, you should NOT apply to this scheme as the Arts Council will not meet any costs incurred outside this period.

² The application form and mandatory enclosures are different for individuals and organisations. Make sure you select the correct AIDF application form.

³ It is important to remember that in the event of a breach of the reporting or verification conditions of a grant for a collaborative project, it is the named applicant who will be held responsible for that breach.

Can I apply to more than one scheme?

You may apply to more than one scheme (for which you are eligible) but you will only be awarded one grant in any funding round.

If you choose to apply to more than one scheme:

- You must complete a separate application form for each scheme.
- The projects within each application must be significantly distinct.
- If, in the view of the Arts Council, the projects are not significantly distinct, you will be contacted and asked to select which scheme and application you would like to proceed with.

Please note: You may apply to different schemes with distinct projects; you are not permitted to submit multiple applications for different projects to the same scheme.

Eligibility

Who can apply to the Artists International Development Fund?

Eligible applicants to SIAP's Artists International Development Fund are as follows⁴:

- Artists of all disciplines and in all types of working practice⁵, including creative producers, curators and editors.
- Emerging Artists: The Arts Council particularly welcomes applications from emerging artists - an emerging artist is someone who is in the early stage of their career as a professional artist. They are developing their artist 'voice' and are in the process of establishing a reputation and recognition among critics, galleries, producers etc, and will have practiced as a professional artist for less than 5 years.
- Practicing artists who are also undergraduates, postgraduates and academics employed at 3rd level educational institutions are eligible to apply but – where their project proposal lies within the same artform area as their study or work - they must prove that the funds which they are seeking are for costs which are not properly the concern of their employer and/or are not related to their work or academic study.
They must submit evidence of this in the form of a letter on headed paper from their Head of Department.
 - In the case of post-graduate students, the letter must clearly state the title of the student's PhD thesis and include a declaration by the Head of Department. This declaration must state "The project for which funds are being sought does not form part of any academic work undertaken in relation to the above-titled PhD nor will it be assessed as part of any academic course".
 - Applicants undertaking a Masters or a PhD must also include a separate statement which provides information on how the project applied for differs from their Masters or PhD work.

Please note: The Arts Council may use its own judgement in determining this matter.

In addition, AIDF applicants must also

- have received recognition for their work in Northern Ireland;
- not have had extensive international experience;
- be applicants whose work will benefit from launching better international networks – either artistically or in terms of developing an audience for their work; and,
- be able to demonstrate an interest in their work from an overseas partner/host.

⁴ Each scheme can have its own additional eligibility criteria. Read the notes carefully.

⁵ Including DJs

Eligible applicants must also

- Have made a contribution to artistic activities in Northern Ireland for a minimum period of 1 year within the last 5 years.
- Live in Northern Ireland
(ACNI's budgets are limited and subject to extremely high demand. Our priority must be for artists living and regularly contributing to the arts within Northern Ireland. If you are primarily living in another region of the UK, Republic of Ireland or elsewhere (ie. you live in that region for the majority of the year), you should apply to the Arts Councils in the relevant jurisdiction. Where the Arts Council has concerns regarding this matter, we may seek further clarification from you with regard to this including documentary evidence.)
- Be at least 18yrs old and not in secondary education.

ODA-related Opportunities

Some prioritisation of Artists International Development Fund grants will be made to Northern Ireland artists and arts organisations interested to connect with artists and arts opportunities in Official Development Assistance (ODA) countries. ODA is a category used by the Development Assistance Committee of the Organisation for Economic Co-operation & Development to measure foreign aid. Please see the list of ODA countries here DAC List of ODA recipients \(opens in new window\).

IMPORTANT Notice on Travel and Insurance:

Applications must adhere to Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office travel advice for any of the countries involved in your project. Please see more here: here - Foreign Travel Advice \(opens in a new window\).

INSURANCE: If you are offered an award, you must get appropriate travel insurance with healthcare cover before you travel. The Arts Council may seek evidence of insurance from awardees.

AIDF Applications from Organisations

Although the Artists' International Development Fund is aimed primarily at individual artists, arts organisations who wish to take small scale work abroad can apply as can small groups of artists who normally collaborate in their work. This could include, for example, musicians and visual artists who usually create work together, or writers and their translators. If the group does not have a shared bank account, awards to successful applicants would be made to the lead artist named on the application form. NB: Organisations wishing to apply to this scheme must apply via the AIDF -Organisations application link available on our website.

What artforms will be considered?

Your proposal can be in any of the following artforms:

- Combined arts
- Literature
- Music
- Drama/Theatre & Dance (including Circus)
- Visual arts
- Craft

What activity can you apply for?

Artists can use the fund to do one or all of the following:

- Develop their artistic practice through working internationally
- Collaborate with and learn from artists internationally
- Create early relationships with artists and/or creative producers with a longer-term view of developing international markets and audiences for their work in another country and building their profile internationally
- Artistic Residencies

The programme can cover the targeted exchange of key creative people to develop new concepts or relationships. Applicants will need to conduct their own research and have identified and communicated with a potential partner/host in the country they wish to visit. Applications could include one or two international visits (for Northern Ireland applicant to travel overseas or overseas partners/collaborators to visit Northern Ireland or both).

You are eligible to bring other sources of funding or sponsorship to the project/grant. We would expect projects to be completed within one year of the decision

Who cannot apply?⁶

- Applicants who have broken the conditions of any previous ACNI award and applicants who remain in breach of any previous letters of offer (regardless of the letter of offer date).
- Students, for projects related to their course of study or their tuition fees (by student we mean a person following a course of study in a school, a college, or a university)
- Small groups who cannot demonstrate that they have a history of working collaboratively
- Applicants who have received an Artists International Development Fund award in 2024/25 or 2025/26. (Why is ACNI applying this stricture? ACNI's budgets are limited

⁶Individual schemes may have additional eligibility criteria. Read the guidance notes carefully.

and subject to extremely high demand. By reducing the frequency with which successful awardees can re-apply we aim to widen the opportunities for those artists who have not yet received support. Remember: You can still apply to any of the other SIAP schemes listed on page 2 for which you have not received an award in 2024/25 or 2025/26.)

Eligible Project Costs

Eligible costs vary across schemes⁷ and you should keep in mind that the Arts Council may choose to contribute to some of your eligible project costs, and not others. For the Artists International Development Fund these can include:

- Art materials
- Costs of your own time in undertaking the proposed activity*⁸
- Residency costs (ACNI's contribution is up to a maximum of 4 weeks' duration), including travel costs (NB: if you are applying for a residency you must provide evidence of an invitation or support from the host organization.)
- Artistic or technical fees including those towards production or post-production costs associated with presentation or exhibition of work
- Venue hire e.g., rehearsal space
- Project-related travel costs, including mileage costs (@25.7p per mile) and air travel
- Technical equipment related to the project/proposal (equipment requests cannot comprise more than 50% of the value of your request)
- IT Equipment : A maximum contribution of £1,200 will be made towards laptops and pcs, and £500 towards tablet computers.

Important Points

* As a working artist, the cost of your own time spent on the project is an element of the real cost of project delivery and your project budget should reflect this. You should set out clearly how you have costed the fees for your own time (ie. break it down appropriately). In the event that the Arts Council chooses to contribute to these costs, it will make a maximum contribution as follows:

- £125 per day for any period up to 5 days
- £500 per week, on a pro rata basis for any period longer than 5 days

We will not award a higher rate per day/week, so you should apply for an ACNI contribution to your costs at these rates. Please keep in mind that the Arts Council is unlikely to be able to fund the full level of your request.

⁷ Individual schemes may have additional project costs eligibility criteria. Read the guidance for the particular scheme you're interested in carefully and contact us if you need advice.

⁸ For writers/poets in particular, these costs may be 100% of project expenditure.

 The fees for any other artists or technicians involved in delivering the project are an element of the real cost of the project and your project budget should reflect this. You should itemise all fees clearly and break them down appropriately. In the event that the Arts Council chooses to contribute to these costs, it will make a maximum contribution as follows⁹:

- £125 per day for any period up to 5 days
- £500 per week, on a pro rata basis for any period longer than 5 days

* If you are including costs for technical or creative equipment as part of your application it is important you tell us:

- why the equipment is necessary for the project and appropriate for your needs
- why buying equipment is more appropriate than hiring it, where applicable
- your plans for continued use of the asset after the end of the project
- your plans for maintenance, storage and insurance, and any additional ongoing costs after the project ends

If you do not include this information, we may decide not to fund the equipment element of your request.

 Traditionally the Arts Council has supported writers to create new work and publishers to foster, develop and ultimately sell books. However, the publishing industry in Northern Ireland now has very limited capacity to service the niche demands of literary work. We also understand that ‘open self-publishing’ platforms are now a part of the publishing ecology. As the mentoring, editorial, design, marketing and promotion functions of established publishers will be absent in self-publishing, writers seeking costs for self-publishing must demonstrate how they can fulfil each of these functions to ensure that their work is of a professional standard. Moreover, such applicants should be able to demonstrate a consistent quality practice of published writing over time. Our aim is to assist high-quality writing to reach an appreciative readership or audience, so it is incumbent on the applicant to demonstrate their ongoing quality with evidence of publication or performance at a professional level. We would also expect writers applying for self-publishing costs who intend to market and distribute their work via social media platforms to make a very strong case for how this will be effective in reaching people outside their usual networks.

⁹ This does not mean that your budget should not reflect the full costs. For example, a technician may cost £200 per day, but your request in relation to those fees should only be for £125 per day.

What you cannot apply for

- Projects which take place or start before the decision date for this programme.¹⁰
- Prolonged study at centres of further and higher education or fees for same or any cost related to such study or related academic work, including: under- and post-graduate fees; fees for study leading to a professional qualification; travel or accommodation.

Also, if you indicate a total project cost and a request amount in your application which is different from the figures provided in your budget attachment, that may also negatively impact the assessment of your application. Check your figures before submission.
Artform-appropriate Support Material	These will be examples of your work as an artist. (Arts administrators do not need to provide Support Material.) As with all mandatory enclosures, if you omit a document requested Remember if it is a collaborative project, you must provide artform-appropriate support material for all the artists involved. If the weblinks provided are not working during the assessment period, the enclosures will be considered missing, and your application will be ineligible for assessment. If submitting video links, e.g. using YouTube, you must ensure that the links are set as public. If the links are set as private and the Arts Council cannot access the links during eligibility checking and/or assessment, your application will be deemed as ineligible as critical support material has not been made available. NB: You must not provide links to any subscription service that requires a login to access. If you provide any such links, the enclosures will be deemed missing, and your application will be made ineligible. ACCEPTABLE FILE FORMATS All data must be PC compatible. If non-PC compatible data is supplied, your application will not be assessed. For example, if using a MAC, it is the applicant’s responsibility to ensure that any enclosures uploaded to the online application are PC compatible. If you receive an award

Letter of Offer

Following the decision, the Arts Council will issue successful applicants with a contract outlining the conditions attached to the award and the specific purposes for which the award can be used.

- You will not be able to incur expenditure until you have received your letter of offer from the Arts Council. You should take this into account when planning your proposal.
- It is important that you read the letter of offer and enclosed conditions carefully before signing and returning it. The letter of offer will set out what you may spend the grant on and by what date the proposal must be completed.
- If there are any changes to your agreed project from the original application, you must inform the Arts Council immediately in writing before incurring any proposal expenditure. If you do not tell us about changes you may have to repay the award, and this will affect decisions on any future applications you might make.

We may discuss with you how this information is to be collected.

Your project may also be subject to verification by an ACNI staff member. This will ensure that the project grant has been spent in accordance with your letter of offer. It is therefore important that you retain all the project documentation to evidence this.

How we will make our decision

Throughout the assessment process, Officers will consider applications using their professional judgement, based on the information provided within the application and knowledge of the wider arts landscape, and the competitive context in which all applications are evaluated. All assessments are then considered at a Moderation meeting at which final recommendations are agreed.

Assessment Stages and Criteria

All applications are subject to a Stage 1 assessment process. Stage 1 will consider the fundability of an application.

Stage 1	Criteria	Assessed Against
	S1.1 Evidence of the quality of the applicant's artistic practice	Artistic CV and work submitted
	S1.2 Artistic quality / innovation of the proposal and its detail	Information provided by written responses within the application form and relevant mandatory enclosures ¹⁵

There are 3 potential outcomes from Stage 1:

- Applications of the highest quality may be recommended for funding at Stage 1¹⁶.
- Applications may be determined as fundable and proceed to Stage 2 for further consideration¹⁷.
- Applications are assessed as Not Fundable and rejected.

Why might an application be considered Not Fundable?

If, in the view of the assessor and Moderation, the application does not demonstrate

- a sufficient quality of artistic practice by the applicant; or,
- the proposal is not of sufficient artistic quality or innovation; or,
- the proposal lacks critical detail

Stage 2 Assessment

An application may not achieve funding at Stage 1 but may still be considered fundable. In this case, it will proceed to Stage 2 for further consideration.

¹⁵ I.e. If you are applying for a mentoring project and have supplied a Programme of Work.

¹⁶ It is important to note that while your application may be recommended for funding at Stage 1, it is still subject to Moderation and there is no guarantee that you will be awarded funding or the full value of your request.

¹⁷ It is important to note that there is no guarantee of funding for applications assessed as fundable which proceed to Stage 2 assessment. All applications are subject to Moderation and there is no guarantee that you will be awarded funding or the full value of your request.

Remember: As the request level for our SIAP schemes is generally much larger than the available programme budgets, we may not be able to provide grants to all applications considered fundable.
